the amount of business we have done since January 1st. What does it?

OUR HALF PRICE SALE!

A great many people thought such could not be done bona fide, but we have convinced hundreds of them that we never advertise but what we are prepared to back our advertisements. Of course we acknowledge that a retail merchant cannot afford to do that, the loss being too heavy and would be greater than the profits that have been made on the cloaks they had sold, no matter how big their profits have been.

And do not show any garments next season that were shown this season. We much prefer to stand a big loss, as the money made in our business is altogether done in our factory and have our retail departments for a big outlet only.

Remember, we are kept very busy and the stock will be closed out in less time than one has any idea, selling all Cloaks and Furs at
